

I am formally submitting a complaint to the possibility there might be changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

There is too much out there right now ... no wonder our nation has turned the way it has. I'm already shocked at the things that can be aired, and to allow the f-word, frontal nudity of a woman, etc, should NOT BE ALLOWED!!! We chose to home school our boys (they are 13 year old twins) mainly to protect their innocence as we know they will not get this in the public schools (but that's another issue). They are involved in hip-hop dance, baseball, scouts, and a home school coop so they are exposed, yet still possess the innocence a 13 year old boy should still have.

PLEASE DO NOT LOWER YOUR STANDARDS. THEY'RE ALREADY LAX ENOUGH!
